Norman Sylvester Band Plays Original Blues

by Dennis Fitzgerald

Portland-based Norman Sylvester was recently the subject of high critical acclaim after an opening performance for blues superstar B.B. King, at a packed Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall. Stuart Thomlinson, music critic from the Oregonian, wrote about him: "Norman Sylvester opened the show with a powerful set of original blues . . . he will be a force to be reckoned with in the coming years." Norman also received praise for having the courage to play primarily his own material, rather than only the tried and true standards, at what was surely one of the most important shows of his life. Sylvester was also complimented on the strength and appeal of his original compositions.

Other successes for Norman Sylvester include a September show at the Oregon State Penitentiary's Bluebird Blues Festival. He expects to see one of his original songs included on a "live" compilation L.P. recorded at that gig.

When Sylvester and his band take the stage, featured performers will be much-in-demand pianist Janice Scroggins and background vocalists "The Sweet Thangs": Lenanne Sylvester (Norman's daughter) and Rhonda and Esterlita Hill. The Hill sisters are Sylvester's nieces.

The Norman Sylvester Band will appear at Taylor's Tavern, October 2 and 3, at 9:30 pm. Admission will be $2 at the door. Taylor's is located at the corner of 13th Avenue and Kincaid Street.
