Join EWEB's "home team."

Hurry! Time is Running Out!

Join the winning team with more than 15,000 Eugene Water & Electric Board customers who have already participated in EWEB's Residential Weatherization Program.

If you heat your home with electricity, EWEB will help you increase the comfort and value of your home while reducing your electric bill.

A Home Energy Analysis is the first step. EWEB will send an energy expert to your home — whether you own or rent — to determine your weatherization needs. If you decide to insulate and weatherize, EWEB may pay for most or all of the weatherization measures installed.

Don't strike out. Stay comfortable for less and help EWEB keep costs down. Phone the EWEB Energy Conservation Center today for a free Home Energy Analysis at:
