

Mr. Sanders is just back from a vacation in Southern Oregon.

Miss White and Miss Gertrude Brewer were in Portland on business a few days ago.

Mr. Pendergrass was a member of the alumni team in a football game at O. A. C. on Oct. 5th.

Members of our orchestra are now rendering a voluntary every Sunday evening during chapel exercises.

Mr. Brown, day school inspector of Flathead Reservation, Montana, spent a few days with us here at the school during the past week.

We are in receipt of a letter from Miss Anna Buck, a member of our graduating class of 1911. She is now in Riverside, California, and is getting along nicely, we are pleased to report.

Dr. McGaw, of Portland, and Father Pryor, of Mt. Angel, are both with us again in charge of religious work at the school. Both gentlemen are very welcome and greatly appreciated at Chemawa.

Mr. E. B. Lockhart, city editor of the Salem Statesman, addressed the general assembly in chapel on Sunday evening, the 6th inst. He made a very interesting address and we sincerely thank him for being with us on this occasion.

As Miss Byrnes did not return at the beginning of school, Miss Amy Hall, of Newberg, Oregon, was employed in her place as teacher. Miss Hall is a sister of Miss Edythe Hall, who is also one of our teachers, having been appointed to the position a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Thompson, of Hadlock, Wash., are at present residing in Chemawa and are temporarily employed. Mrs. Thompson is a sister of Mr. Edwin A. Smith, our disciplinarian.

During the vacation period Mr. Westley, our gardener, had the misfortune to shoot himself in the right hand with a gopher gun. It was a very bad mishap and made necessary the amputation of two fingers. However, he is now about the same as of yore—minus two fingers.

Supt. H. H. Miller, of Fort Belknap, Mont., recently came to Chemawa in charge of a party of pupils who are now enrolled with us. Supt. Miller was much interested in the many worthy features of our school. He made many friends during the short time that he was here.

Miss Nellie Barrett arrived at the school a few days ago from Katalla, Alaska, accompanied by her little brother, George. She is enroute to Minneapolis, Minn., but George was left here and is now operating in the role of "devil" in our office—he is making good. Miss Nellie may return to Chemawa and enroll with us.
