
OUR BUDGET OF LOCAL LORE

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Once again the leaves are falling. Supt. Wadsworth was a Portland visitor recently, attending to school business.

Since our last issue Mrs. B. F. Stevens of Dodson, Montana, has visited at the school.

Work on our new auditorium building is progressing rapidly and the structure will be very fine when completed.

Supt. Wadsworth assures us that quite a number of pupils have written him of their intention to come to Chemawa and enroll. This is good news for all.

Mr. Ernest Brewer was recently appointed to a position in the Indian Service and is at present in Washington, D. C., where he is getting along nicely we are pleased to state.

Under instructions from Supt. Wadsworth, Mr. Woods has workmen engaged at the task of putting in new gutter tin and reshingling our office building. This work seemed very necessary.

The flag at Chemawa floated at half-mast for a few days in honor of vice-President Sherman whose recent death shocked the nation. In pursuance of an order issued by President Taft all federal offices were closed on Saturday, Nov. 2, in memory of Mr. Sherman, and in accordance with this order Supt. Wadsworth closed his office.

Mr. Frank Pendergrass, who has been a month in Southern Oregon on a hunting trip, arrived home on Nov. 1st, having killed all he was allowed by law. Every year Mr. Pendergrass spends his vacation in this manner.

Richard Harris, a former graduate of Chemawa, has been here within the month on a visit to his alma mater. Mr. Harris is at present residing in Juneau, Alaska, where he is working at his trade, carpentering, and getting along nicely.

We are informed that Miss Ella Brewer, who went east some time ago and entered departmental service, is now temporarily holding the assistant secretaryship under the State Archeologist of New York. She says that she likes the work and will hold the position for about three months. We are pleased to note that Miss Ella is getting along so nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugh left about Nov. 1st for Los Angeles, California, to remain for an indefinite period. Mrs. Pugh's health was poor and this necessitated the trip. Friends in this vicinity hope that she may recover her usual good health speedily.
