

presenting the Caucasian type, the above theory seems worthy of consideration."

Not far from the above spot some strange carvings have been found by Captain Winslow of the United States survey, which depict the chase of a deer, a turtle, a snake and warriors and nearby are frequently found many arrow heads of quaint workmanship.

