

with all of these the fact became evident that separate schools should be established for the training of the country teacher.

Only a limited number exist, compared with the number needed. The movement has been started and all see the need of it and the benefits gained and ere long Training Schools for Country Teachers will be as numerous and efficient as those for the city teacher.

---

---

Mt. HOOD.