

where the bloodiest battles were fought, and here some of the officers were killed.

Some of the buildings in the town of Gettysburg are scarred up by the cannon balls and bullets fired by the confederates and union soldiers. The roads on the battlefield are kept in good order and the grass is also. The battlefield is twenty-two miles in extent. It has been two years since I visited Gettysburg. There may be some mistakes in this, but I am telling it as I remember it.—John Fritts, Sixth Grade; Klamath Tribe.

RELIANCE SOCIETY

The Reliance Society has made a wonderful showing during January and February. New members are enrolling so fast that it will be necessary to provide a larger room for a meeting place during the coming month. The members are realizing the fact that society work is one of the main studies of the school; they not only learn to speak in public but it enables them to hold a conversation on many subjects that come in every-day life. Our officers are making an excellent showing and we hold the championship in debates and athletics, which we hope to continue to the end of the term. We cordially invite every young man who wishes to improve along that line to join us. We meet every Thursday evening.

THE UNION MEETING

The union meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. was held on Sunday afternoon, February 23, in the Small Girls' Home. The meeting under the direction of the Y. M. C. A., was led by President Paul Kininook. After the Bible reading on the topic, "Self-control." Miss Chappel of the Willamette University gave an illustrated talk on different phases of intemperance. Miss Chappel always speaks in a clear, instructive, and pleasing manner.

THE LIBRARY

"Give me the room whose every nook
Is dedicated to a book.
Two windows will suffice for air,
And grant the light admission there
The eastern wall from frieze to plinth
Shall be the Poet's labyrinth."

At last the school library is no longer a dream. The room opposite
