

WHEN WE MEET AT HEAVEN'S GATE

When we meet at heaven's gate
The sun will burst forth
From every snow white cloud,
While the dew evaporates
And brings the flowers' perfume
On the air's smooth breeze;
And all the white clouds
Will form in a large circle
And in the center
The Father Almighty will sit.
From the clouds like snow
The angels will fly
To give us welcome in.

—George Roberts.

Rev. Mr. Kennedy, who has succeeded Dr. McGaw as local missionary, entered upon his new duties Sunday, April twentieth. We feel sure that Rev. Kennedy will be the right man in the right, and we wish to extend to him a very hearty welcome to Chemawa.

Miss Mazie Crawford of Fort Lapwai, Idaho, was a guest of the school April 24th. In the evening a number of employes and students listened with pleasure to her talk on mission work among the Nez Perce Indians. Miss Crawford was much gratified to find the Nez Perce students active in the Christian work at Chemawa.

Dr. John Steele, who has been sent out to preach to the Indians of the United States by the Presbyterian Board of Missions, was again here on April 12 to 16. We have always enjoyed the few days that he spends with us, but this time it seemed that both pupils and employes were more than ever eager to hear what he had to say and were present at all the chapel meetings. We hope that he will soon be with us again, as his helpful words are always remembered, and will influence the lives of a great many of us.—Frank Johnson, Senior.

The Annual Student Conference of the Y. M. C. A. was held at Albany, Oregon, April 18 to 20. The three delegates who represented Chemawa's Y. M. C. A. were Kiutus Jim, Joseph Blackeagle and Paul Kininnook. Twenty-six delegates and five faculties were present from various colleges and Universities of Oregon. We had a very pleasant trip and returned with greater inspiration for our association work. We hope to follow out next fall the plans made at the convention.—Paul Kininnook, Senior.
