MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT

Following will be found a number of "kind mentions" from our exchanges, which we appreciate to the fullest extent:

Chemawa American: Your paper continues to improve. The cuts are largely responsible for this. If you could get advertisements of business and technical schools, etc., it would greatly help to enlarge and improve your paper.—Apokeepsian, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Congratulations, "Chemawa American," from Salem Indian Training School, Chemawa, Oregon! You have progressed wonderfully since your last visit to us. We hardly knew you. "Totemism" is as educational as it is interesting. In glancing through your magazine we notice that all of your stories are of a different type than the majority of school periodical stories, as they deal more with real facts than with mere fiction. As a whole you are exceedingly educational. Your stories are well illustrated.—The Owl, Fresno, Calif.

Chemawa American, U. S. I. T. S. Your paper is always welcome. Your paper is so novel. Why not start an exchange department? Your last two papers have had advertisements, and fine cuts, and show much improvement.—The Adjutant, San Rafael, Calif.

Chemawa American—This paper has made the greatest improvement of any of our exchanges. It is now among the best Oregon papers.—The Lens, Portland, Ore.
