

Not long ago Mr. Clardy chaperoned a party of our girls on a visit to Mt. Angel—a trip that proved delightful in every way.

On the evening of May 24th the farmers indulged in a party, of which dancing was the principal feature—aside from refreshments.

Miss Peters, assistant clerk, has been quite ill of late and was for a time at a Salem hospital. We are pleased that she is now much better.

Miss Myrta A. Randolph is the latest addition to our teaching force and we are pleased welcome her. She formerly lived in Los Angeles, California.

Our band furnished music at the Strawberry Festival held recently at Roseburg, Oregon, and was very successful in giving most perfect satisfaction.

On Memorial Day Mrs. Brewer was in Tacoma, while Miss Skipton went to Corvallis, flower-bedecking the graves of dear ones who inhabit the "Silent Cities."

On May 23rd, following an annual custom, a number of G. A. R. veterans were at the school and addressed the student body on patriotism and the observance of Memorial Day.

Within the past few weeks we have received a visit each from Supt. Johnson of the Cushman school at Tacoma, and Supt. Swartzlander of Umatilla. We were pleased to have these gentlemen visit us.

Miss Margaret Lowry and her mother came from Greenville, California, to be in attendance during Commencement, so that they might be present at the graduation of the sister and daughter, Miss Maude.

Mr. H. C. Bowen, who for some time was industrial teacher at Chemawa, paid the school a visit since our last issue. He is now holding one of the best positions obtainable in the Pullman Car Company at Portland and is getting along nicely.

Miss Gaither and her corps of teachers should be well pleased by the showing made by the pupils who took part in the graduating exercises, for all acquitted themselves exceptionally well. All of the exercises were fitting and of unusual interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Teabo came over from their Grande Ronde home to attend our Commencement exercises and visit with friends.

Memorable was the reception given by Supt. and Mrs. Wadsworth at "The Cottage" on the evening of June 19th to members of the graduating class. Conversation, music and good fellowship passed away the evening all too quickly. Before the party dispersed delicious refreshments were served and shortly thereafter the guests departed with "good nights" and good wishes for Supt. and Mrs. Wadsworth, who had certainly proved themselves perfect as host and hostess.
