

Supt. Wadsworth took pleasure in the receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the school of Rapid City, S. D. These exercises were held June 15-18.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Hatch are now domiciled at Chemawa, Mr. Hatch having been appointed to the position of tailor at the school. This will be good news for many of our readers.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Chas. E. Larsen, so many years a resident of Chemawa, appeared on the graduation program at Jones Male Academy, Oklahoma, this year in the role of 'cello soloist.

Mere Man—Madam, I wish you would kindly remove your hat; I paid $2 for my seat and I can see nothing but your hat.

Fair Creature—Hump, I paid $18 for my hat, I'd like to have you know; and I want it to be seen.
