

various shops, and departments of the school farm, there have been no changes of employes for the year—with one exception, the resignation of Mr. Tracy Hatch as tailor.

Thus it will be seen that all of the activities of the school are very largely in the same hands as a year ago and will be carried forward this year on much the same ideas which have dominated the courses at Chemawa during the year just past. We are delighted with what the future promises us.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT

UNDER SUPERVISION OF MISS M. V. GAITHER, Principal

Y. W. C. A. AND Y. M. C. A. CABINET MEMBERS FOR 1913

ON Tuesday evening, Sept. 23rd, the members of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. of Chemawa held a meeting in the auditorium for the purpose of electing new cabinet members for the year. The officers elected were as follows:

For the Y. M. C. A. Raymond White, president; Robert Alphus, vice-president; Dewey Billy, secretary; Peter Alphus, treasurer.

For the Y. W. C. A., Kate Brewer, president; Ruth Liphart, vice-president; Sara Brewer, secretary; Cora Zeiglar, treasurer; Julia Durkee, reporter.

Miss Chapel and Miss Bartholomew, of Willamette, were present on that occasion to speak to the girls and to help with the new plans for the year. Miss Chapel gave an interesting talk. Mr. Needham and Mr. Boldt were also present to help the boys with their planning.

Mr. Kennedy will give kindly aid to both associations as well as to the junior branch of each. The interest and enthusiasm exhibited by both boys and girls is encouraging. Plans for earnest Bible study have been made.

ACADEMIC LOCAL

Little Susan Fickle has just had a birthday. She is two years old. It would be hard to find a sweeter little child. Alma Nelson is her