ACADEMIC LOCAL

The concert given in the auditorium on October 19th was greatly enjoyed by the large audience present, and the program, which was of a very high class, was well rendered. Several good musicians have been added to the band during the present term. Mr. Loos, the director, expects to have, by the close of the year, one of the best bands in the Service.

The clarinet solo at one of the late Sunday evening services by Eugene Geffe, and the vocal solo by William Jackson, were very much enjoyed.

All of the academic force attended the Teachers' Institute in Salem last month. It is a great advantage to this school to be so closely in touch with the Salem schools, which are among the very best on the Pacific Coast.

Satisfactory reports are being received from Salem High and Willamette Preparatory Schools concerning our several ex-students from Alaska who are attending those institutions.

The students have gotten down to good, earnest work. They seem to realize what it means to them.

Evening study hour is better organized than last year and we expect good results.

A number of books have been received for the library within the past few days. And another shipment is on the way. The library continues to gain in interest. In addition to her regular duty of teaching Mrs. Brace has charge of this very valuable adjunct to the school work, and spends an hour before school and one after school in issuing books to those who wish them. It is encouraging to notice the growing interest of boys and girls who are forming the habit of reading. The time
