

for giving out books is not sufficient to accommodate all who wish to read, but it is hoped that additional facilities will be provided in this respect at an early date. So far, the students have complied very nicely with the rules governing the use of the library. The books are carefully used and promptly returned.

November 4th all grades wrote on "Kindness to Dumb Animals" according to instructions from the Indian Office. Many good stories were written by the students. Some of them were published.

Scenery and views from the school of the Willamette Valley were never more magnificent than at present. The trees in their varied Autumn hues, the stately firs and Mounts Hood and Jefferson in the distance, both snow-capped, present a picture that no artist could put on canvas to equal in beauty and grandeur.

Literary societies are well organized and the attendance good. The enthusiastic spirit shown at the beginning of the term indicates a successful year.

On Saturday afternoon the Excelsior and Reliance junior football teams met on the gridiron and played an interesting game. The Excelsiors were victorious by the score of 38 to 0.

Both the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are doing good work under the supervision of Mrs. Brace and Mr. Hobucket. All Protestant boys and girls of good standing are cordially invited to become members.

Little Donna May Smith and Betty Clardy, aged four and six years, respectively, are champion tricycle riders. They are seen every day riding their tricycles on the walks about the grounds.

THE WINNING FOOTBALL TEAM OF CHEMAWA

The best football team of the Chemawa Indian School is the team which consists of four small boys. These four boys being the winning team, we will call them the Victorious Four; we will give them the tin cup. This team played with the Willamette team, but Willamette stood no show. The Victorious Four ran all over them. This game, which was the greatest of the season, was played on the tennis court on Chemawa campus. The Victorious Four are Mark Clardy, center; Laurie Wadsworth, quarterback; Donald Fulkerson, fullback, and Robert Douglas, left tackle.

The Victorious Football Four have rivals in tricycle riding. These riders are Dona May Smith, aged 4, and Betty Clardy, aged 6. They are the best tricycle riders on the sidewalks.

The ages of this team are from four to six years.—Henry Davis, age 13.
