

We are in receipt of a report of the third annual conference of The Society of American Indians which was held in Denver, Colorado, last month, and wish to acknowledge thanks for the courtesy extended to us. The report reached us too late for use in this issue, but full attention will be given in our December number of The American. Beyond doubt the conference was most successful. This was the third annual conference of this society.

On October 28 and 29 Mr. Chas. E. Larsen, for many years identified with Chemawa and her affairs, paid us a visit. He stated his pleasure at being here and complimented all on the condition at the school. Mr. Larsen had been clerk at the Jones Male Academy in Oklahoma, but was enroute to Tulalip, Wash., where he had accepted a position as disciplinarian under Dr. Buchanan. It seemed like old times to see Mr. Larsen on our grounds again.

On Sunday, November 9th, Miss Isabel Talbot, a pupil of our school, and Mr. Patrick Vernie were united in wedlock in Salem, Oregon. The bride had been at Chemawa for many years, while Mr. Vernie spent last year here and attended business college in Salem. While here he was a prominent member of our band, occupying the first clarinetist's chair. He is a printer and since leaving school last June he has worked at his trade in the office of The Ketchikan Miner, in Ketchikan, Alaska, which position he still holds and to which place he and his bride have gone. Many friends at the school and elsewhere wish the young couple naught but good luck and happiness in their voyage through life.

BUT ONCE

I SHALL pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

—A. B. HEGEMAN.
