

to come back again next year. As the students passed out a large sized bag containing candy, nuts, popcorn, an apple and an orange was given them by Dr. Fulkerson and Mr. Brace. Every one present had the spirit of Christmas. Christmas eve of 1913 will long be remembered at Chemawa.

During the holidays the auditorium was beautifully decorated with mistletoe, Oregon grape, ferns, and boughs, by Mr. Fickle and several large boys. Miss Dohse made the motto "Merry Christmas," which was suspended on wire in front of the stage.

Prof. Earl Kilpatrick, Principal of the Salem High School, addressed the student body Sunday evening. His talk concerning the formation of this part of the United States was both interesting and instructive.

The many friends of Mrs. Theisz are pleased that she is well and on duty again. Mrs. Cooper had charge of McBride Hall during her illness.

Several of the employees were sick during Christmas week. Miss Skipton, dining-hall matron, being sick was relieved by Miss White and Miss Reidel, two of the academic teachers. Miss Flint assisted Mrs. Cooper in McBride Hall.

Louis Paul and William Jackson were Miss Gaither's guests at dinner at the Teachers' Club on Sunday.

A number of employees had Christmas trees for their children at their homes. Christmas was thoroughly enjoyed at Chemawa.

The many friends of Mrs. Marie Harold, who lives near Quinaby, are pleased to know of her good health. On visiting Mrs. Harold one is impressed with her kind face, which makes her admired. Mrs. Harold is the mother of Miss Christine Harold, who has always been a great friend of the school and has filled temporary positions here.

Miss Nellie Banfield of Portland who filled a teacher's position temporarily last spring spent an evening of her holiday vacation here. We are always pleased to see Miss Banfield.

Ray White went home on account of business matters. We regret to lose Ray, as he is a young man of exemplary character, courteous and kind, and always ready to lend a helping hand. While here in school Ray was an active member of the Y. M. C. A.

"The Book of Knowledge," the children's encyclopedia consisting of 20 volumes, illustrated, has recently been added to our library. This set of books is most valuable to the school, being filled with information on all subjects. Students of lower grades, as well as those of the advanced, get much useful information from them.

Three of our graduates of the class of 1913, Joseph Dunbar, Patsy
