

in our school. We are pleased to know he will visit us again. The program for the evening follows:

Processional	- - - - -	Orchestra
Song—Low at Thy Pierced Feet, Saviour of All, No. 143		Congregation
Prayer	- - - - -	Congregation
Song—I was a Wandering Sheep, No. 187	- -	Congregation
Voluntary—Last Rose of Summer—Air Varie	-	Page-Turney
(Double Bass and Piano)
Address	- - - - -	Hon. J. A. Churchill
		Superintendent of Public Instruction of Oregon
Song—The Day is Past and Over, No. 24	- -	Congregation
Watchword	- - - - -	Congregation
Recessional	- - - - -	Orchestra

OUR BUDGET OF LORE

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE

Alvina Smith is now at her home in Loomis, Wash., where she is getting along nicely.

Mr. Smith, of Hadlock, Wash., a brother of Mr. E. A. Smith and of Mrs. Thompson, spent the Christmas holidays here.

Rev. Mr. Gill, pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church in Salem, held services for the students on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 11.

Miss Skipton had a number of friends to a turkey dinner on Christmas Day. The party was a merry one and the dinner was perfect.

It would be hard to imagine more beautiful or tasteful decorations than were everywhere in evidence at Chemawa to greet the eye on Christmas.

During holiday week, Mrs. Evelyn Rhodes, after a visit of some length with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, returned to her home in Tillamook, Oregon.

Just before the holidays Frank Souvigner, who graduated from Chemawa several years ago, paid us a visit. Frank, we are glad report, is getting along nicely.

Ernest Brewer, who now holds a clerkship at the Yakima school, spent Christmas with relatives and friends in Chemawa. Ernest is now strong and hearty again and is getting along nicely.