The second half began with both teams fighting hard, Chemawa to gain the lead and McMinnville to hold her place; made the game exciting as well as interesting. As a usual thing our boys come back strong in the second half; this game was no exception, our team worked well and in the last few minutes of the game scored ten points.

"Bunny" Service, our center, was our star, making twelve points. The score stood at the close of the game 30 to 22 in McMinnville's favor. Our standing in the League is 500.
