

Fourth A

Andrew Williams	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	96
Barney Tolson	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	96
Arthur W. Johnson	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	95
Louise DesChamp	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	94
Arthur Sandaine	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	93
Anna Williams	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92
Mary Voutrin	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92
Inga Johansen	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92
Ruth Thunderbear	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Mary Perkins	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Ivan Anderson	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Willie Albert	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Augusta Evans	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Annie Miller	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
George Barrett	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	90
Leo Fleury	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	90
Gabriel DesChamp	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	90

Fourth B

William Sandaine	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	93
Ione Carden	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92
Wesley White	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91

Third

Albert Killingsworth	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92
Joe Gale	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	91
Darcy McNickle	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	90
Mamie Shellhouse	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	92

WHAT A GRADUATE SAYS

Mr. Lovelace, president of the Chemawa Alumni Association, is in receipt of a most interesting letter from Mr. W. D. Minor, a merchant tailor of Toppenish, Wash. Mr. Minor was at one time a student at Chemawa. He has certainly proved his worth in many ways since his school days and what he has to say in his letter is especially significant at this time. His letter is dated Mar. 5, 1914, and is as follows:

Your communication of recent date relative to the organization of an