

Among other improvements of recent origin here was the shaping up of the brick plumbing shop.

Supt. Wadsworth called the various employes together on the evening of March 2nd, and quite a lively session ensued. Many problems were discussed.

Miss Walker, who was employed so long at the Employes' Mess, recently departed for her home at Wasco, Oregon. She left many friends at Chemawa.

A cement walk from Mitchell Hall due west to the industrial building is under consideration now and there are good prospects that it will be a reality ere long.

Much fine work in what is termed "tiline" has been done at the students' kitchen, and various other places at the school. This is a comparatively new composition, but it is very fine.

Since our last publication a member of our force, Reggie Downie, was honored by his fellow-students with a "surprise" party. It proved a real surprise to him—as delightful as it was surprising.

Thanks to Commissioner Sells' decision we are to profit by his guidance for a long time yet we hope. He was recently offered a more lucrative position, but refused, and we are fortunate in his refusal.

Since our last issue Supt. Wadsworth has had walks placed on the north and south sides of the academic building leading east to the entrances of the auditorium. This was an improvement appreciated by all.

Supt. Wadsworth, in behalf of our Alaskan pupils, sent a telegram of appreciation to Senator Chamberlain in recognition of his efforts in securing the passage of the Alaska Railroad Bill. Supt. Wadsworth in due season received a very nice reply from Senator Chamberlain. It was a happy incident in every way.

Messrs. Geo. T. Barrett and Thos. White, of Katalla, Alaska, paid their children here at Chemawa a visit during the latter part of February. They had both been government witnesses on a coal case tried in Seattle before coming here. Their visit was very brief, Mr. Barrett going from here to Minneapolis and Mr. White returning home.

On another page will be found the program of a recent concert given in the auditorium by our band under the direction of Mr. I. S. Loos. The entire program was most enjoyable in every way. The members of the band and the singers all acquitted themselves most creditably. We believe it fitting at this time to call special attention to the work of William Walters, who rendered a trying baritone solo from memory, with band accompaniment.
