FROM THE GRADES

Fourth

The apple trees are in full bloom; the trees are all white with blossoms; it makes the orchard look pretty.—Dewey Conway.

The Sunday School convention held here last Sunday, March, 29, was enjoyed by everyone who attended.—Lottie Wilson.

We have had our monthly test in the fourth grade. Mr. Hobucket gave us a hard examination this time.—Josephine Woods.

The gardeners are kept busy these days sorting potatoes ready for planting. Onions are already planted. Who says the gardeners do not work?—Oscar Wilson.

The roof of the Small Boys' Home is painted with green paint and it is the prettiest building in Chemawa.—Louis Colby.

In Montana there is snow on the ground, while in Oregon they are having sunny days and working hard. While the boys and girls in Montana are going to school every day in the week, excepting Saturday, they go sleigh riding and coasting, and have snowball fights. In summer the young men work for wages out in the hay field.—Francis Bousquet.

My matron is Mrs. Lovelace. I like her. She is good to the boys and the boys like her, too. I am in the third grade. My home is in Montana.—Fred Thomas.
