

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENOION

The Sunday Schools of the Haysville district held their quarterly convention at Chemawa on Sunday, March 29. Seventeen schools were represented, and the attendance was unusually large for a district convention. At the morning session the auditorium was filled and many of the students could not be seated. The afternoon session was held in the gymnasium. At noon the delegates enjoyed a basket dinner and the Chemawa band gave a concert. The following addresses were given in the forenoon:

"Organized Classes," by A. O. Davidson, Salem.

"Secondary Department," by Chas. Knowland, Salem.

"Vision, Vigor and Victory," by State Secretary Chas. Phipps, Portland.

After the business session in the afternoon, Louis Paul, of Chemawa, spoke on the topic, "Why I go to Sunday School." Rev. F. W. Emerson, of Albany, gave an address on "Formation or Reformation."

A solo by Mr. A. A. Schramm, of Salem; a solo by Miss Louise Deschamp, and a duet by Miss Louise Deschamp and Felix Isadore, of Chemawa, were special musical features.

OUR BUDGET OF LORE

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE

Thursday, April 9th, was "clean-up" day at Chemawa and everything was rubbed and scrubbed until there was an evidence of polish on all sides.

On the 7th of April Mr. Clardy left hurriedly for his old home in Kentucky, on receiving intelligence of the very serious illness of his mother.

On March 24th Chemawa was pleased to have as a guest Supt. Watson of Klamath Agency. Supt. Watson reported all as going forward nicely at the Agency.

Not long ago, Mr. Smith, who has charge of athletics at Chemawa, did a lot of good work in the way of dragging and leveling the baseball diamond and the track.

Not long ago we were pleased to be visited by Mr. Emil Hauser of Siletz, who was accompanied by his brother, Peter, whose home is in Oklahoma. Both of these men have been famous football stars in the past and judging from present appearances they are still "in it."
