

At the time of going to press the girls of the Nonpariel Literary Society were making preparations for a party on April 11. To Judge from preparations in progress this event promised to make history as a social function.

Supervisor H. G. Wilson of Roseburg was a Chemawa visitor for a few hours on April 10th. Mr. Wilson was in Washington, D. C., recently on government business. He says that everything is moving along nicely with him.

We thank the Review of the Sacramento (Calif.) High School for the very complimentary notice given us in their last issue, as follows: "You are the neatest and best appearing magazine that has come to us this year, Chemawa American. Your jokes are surely well selected. We are glad to have you with us again."

On the evening of April 4th Mr. Charles Riley McCalley, reader and violinist, gave an entertainment here. Miss Gertrude Brewer was the assisting pianist and accompanied in her usual splendid style. Miss Louise DesChamp sang a very pleasing vocal number and Ruthyn Turney played a double bass solo. There was a good-sized audience in the Auditorium and the entertainment, which was clean and pleasing, was enjoyed by all.

Judge Cato Sells will be given strong support in his stand against liquor in the Indian Service. Just recently Hon. Joseph H. Choate sent the following nice note to Judge Sells: I thank you very much for sending me a copy of your letter 'To all Employes in the Service.' You are absolutely right in your position that if we can save the American Indian from the curse of whiskey we can save him from pretty much all the other ills that threaten him.

Superintendent Wadsworth is in receipt of the following letter from Paul Unges, of Tacoma, Wash.: I wish to congratulate you on the success of your school as an institution for boys. It was my good fortune to work with a number of them at Salem, and to become acquainted with four of them, among whom were Peter Alpheus and Nick Orloff, who are still at the School. Seldom in my life have I met such good friends—never better ones—nor have I ever known a better behaved crowd of boys. So much equanimity and fellowship among them. God bless you, your work, and the boys. Indeed they might be a model for any high school in the country.
