

to some real baseball by Chemawa. To be sure it was a red letter day for the visitors. McDonald was called to do the sharp shooting and he shot them over so fast that the big Collegians were retired to the bench in rapid order. Hungray, who was burning things up at the third sack, went to the firing line at the first of the sixth inning and he held them safe, while Chemawa covered the circuit twice. The final score was, Chemawa 5; Oregon 4. The Chemawa players were on their toes from start to finish and nothing but the large end of the score would be acceptable.

The following day was Oregon, first, last, and all the way through, as the large score will show. However, it was not a true test of the teams. Oregon had been out nearly three weeks while Chemawa had only ten days to prepare for their game. Our boys worked so hard the day previous that they were not fit for a true test and the figures, 28 to 1, told the story.

After several days of real rain the Salem High School boys gave us a good five-inning game on April 8th. Scowlole and V. Adams pitched for Chemawa, both boys doing very well. Capt. Keene was at his best on the mound for Salem. Early in the first inning Downie sent a long drive down the first-base line and through the blacksmith shop window, while he sprinted around the diamond for home and the only score of the day. This was a good work-out and helped to put the boys on edge for the game with Oregon on the Saturday following April 11th Oregon came down from Eugene well tuned up by Coach Bezdek. Chemawa appeared in new uniforms of the Spalding make. The suits are of light gray with red trimmings. McDonald was detailed to win the game and he did up to the seventh inning. Oregon came to the bat and was retired, one, two, three, then Chemawa came up and by heavy hitting, Flemming, the big southpaw, was so badly shot to pieces that he was led off the field after our boys scored three runs. L. Bigbee was sent out by the Oregon coach. He soon cleaned things away and held Chemawa safe for the balance of the game.

The third inning was the most spectacular of the game, with three men on bases and no outs. McDonald tightened up and fielded like a major league player; he threw out two base runners at the plate and struck out the third man up. In the fifth inning Oregon made two scores and one in the seventh; this tied the score. In the eighth by over-throwing first and second bases Oregon made two scores, winning the game 5 to 3.

Capt. Keene of the Salem High team proved to be a very good umpire. His decisions were never in question.

The track team is slowly working out, owing to the wet track. While the team will not be a sure winner, our boys will put up a very hard fight against Willamette on May 1st.
