
UNION MEETING OF CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

At the Union meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., on April 26, Mr. R. J. Clark of the Portland Y. M. C. A., gave an interesting address on "Power." Special music was furnished by Miss Ruth Brewer and the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. Nick Orloff was the leader.

AURORA SOCIETY

The Aurora Society met in chapel in the academic building. The room was first called to order by the President and we then had the roll called. Next we proceeded with the program, which was as follows: Speech by President. Debate, "Resolved, That fire is more destructive than water." Affirmative, Gertrude McCoy and Mabel Van Horn. Negative, Vernie Brown and Grace Perkins.

The debate was won by the affirmative side. After the debate we had a piano solo by Vernie Brown and a vocal duet by Alma Nelson and Louise Deschamp. After a few words from our critic we adjourned.—Maggie Johnson, Acting Secretary.

NONPAREIL LITERARY SOCIETY

The members of the Nonpareil Literary Society gave their annual reception in the gymnasium which was decorated in purple and gold, the society colors. Music was furnished by Miss Ruth Swoboda. The members sang the society song, "Nonpareils Look Fine Tonight." It was heartily approved by all present.

The pie contest afforded much amusement. The contestants were Robert Downie, Irving Shepard, Hartley Williams and John Beyers. John Beyers carried off the honors and a box of candy as a prize. After the contest all went up to the balcony where delicious refreshments were served. Then the "Home Sweet Home" waltz was played and at 10:30 all went noiselessly to their quarters.—Ida Kennedy, Reporter.
