

Recitation—Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech	-	-	Ida Kennedy
Duet—Just a Chain of Daisies	-	Lubova Siftsoff and Dorothy Talbot
Comedy	-	-	Margaret Rainville and Alice Richards
Recitation—Little Daisies	-	-	Victoria Gardipi
Question Box	-	-	Society
Current Events	-	-	Marina Siftsoff
Vocal Solo—Can't U C I Love You	-	-	Margaret Rainville
Recitation	-	-	Mary Ann Minugh
Song—Here's to the Good Old Nonpariels	-	-	Society
Closing Address—Farewell Until Next Year	-	-	Mae McLeod

Ida Kennedy, Reporter.

NUT-CRACKER LITERARY SOCIETY

THE Nut-Cracker Society held a short but interesting meeting last Thursday evening. The following program was well rendered by those who took part: Opening remarks, Henry Davis; recitation, Joseph Jackson; Vocal Duet, Russie and Stone; Jokes, Joseph Blodgett; Recitation, Joseph Belgarde; Monologue, Charles Seguin; Song, Clarence Killingsworth; Indian Club Drill, Four Boys; Recitation, Henry Rachor; Society Song, Society.

A brief talk was given by Jerry Rees, president of the Reliance Society, who was visiting our society. As usual, Mr. Hobucket, our advisory member, gave us a very interesting talk at the close of the meeting. At the close of his remarks he announced that it was the last meeting of the society for the year, which went a little hard for some of the members who are deeply interested on the society work. But we hope that the Nut-Crackers will not be forgotten by those who are interested in the new organization. We certainly will not forget the good advice that was given us by some of the employes and students who took a great deal of interest in getting us started on our work. We only wish that some day the opportunity may come that we may return the compliments that have been given us. Next year the Littles Ones mean to come back good and strong with a full force.—Henry Davis, Reporter.