

On May 4th Supt. Wadsworth had a couple of photographers out from Salem taking pictures for exhibition at the Panama Exposition next year.

Not long ago Mrs. Brewer, Miss Brewer, and Miss White made a trip to Mt. Angel. They had never been there and the trip proved an interesting one.

Invitation was sent Supt. Wadsworth to be present at the commencement exercises at Sherman Institute, May 10 to 13 inclusive, and he takes pleasure in acknowledging the same.

Miss Laura Wilson, a graduate of 1912, was a welcome visitor at Chemawa recently. She is now living at her home in Washington, where she is getting along nicely. She declared that Chemawa looked mighty good to her.

We were pleased to receive a little pamphlet on the subject of grape culture at Chilocco not long ago. The subject was illustrated and most interestingly handled by W. A. Frederick, who is teacher of horticulture at that school.

We have good authority for believing that Alice Bettles, for many years a pupil at Chemawa, was married on April 20 to a Mr. Kirk at Ellamar, Alaska. Mr. Kirk is the foreman of the Ellamar mine. The American extends good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hauser and child are now domiciled at Chemawa, where Mr. Hauser has employment. They moved here from Siletz. Mr. Hauser is widely and favorably known for his prowess on the athletic field. We are pleased to have them here.

On the evening of April 24th considerable of a disturbance was noticeable in the vicinity of Mitchell Hall. Inquiry brought forth the information that it was the anniversary of Mr. Loos' birth and the band-boys were doing their part with considerable vim and vigor.

Since our last issue Mrs. Swoboda had the misfortune to trip on a loose plank of the walk leading to the Oregon Electric depot and fall, breaking her arm. Everybody sympathizes with her in her misfortune and suffering and hope that she may fully recover the use of her arm.

Raymond Ready writes us from Seattle, Wash., that he has settled down to business and has a good situation in a printshop in the sound city. We are pleased to note this. Raymond was a "devil" (a real one, too,) in our office for a considerable time, but we forgive his past sins.

We are in receipt of the following item from the Tulalip school, Dr. Buchanan, superintendent: "Professor Frein, head of the French Department of the State University, was an interested visitor at the Tulalip Agency last Saturday. He brought with him the guest of the University,
