

and expected to show real class in baseball, but Dick Adams had everything at his command and soon had the game safe.

In this game Lane, the sturdy catcher, was the first man up, and swatted the ball for a home run. By size he is the smallest man on the team; at bat he is the Hans Wagner of the National League. Adams was in fine fettle; the heavy batters on the visiting team could not locate the ball and were sent home with a ten to one defeat.

May 9th we meet and defeated the McMinnville College team 8 to 7. Victory came at the close of nine innings of good fast playing by both teams. The Mack men were in the game from start to finish, and Chemawa had to extend herself to stave off defeat. McDonald was hit quite freely at the close of the game, while the same is true of the College twirler.

May first Chemawa ran away from Willamette in the annual track and field meet by a 62 to 58 score.
