

Among those of our people who visited in the East during the vacation period were Miss Gaither, Mr. Devol, and Mr. Mitchell. From what we gather they all had good trips and enjoyable visits.

Members of our girls' canning club attended the State Fair at Salem during the sessions of the last three days and gave demonstrations in canning fruit and vegetables. This proved a most interesting feature and attracted a great deal of attention.

Mr. Ernest Brewer, and sister, Miss Ella, were visitors at Chemawa during the mid-summer institute. Both are former Chemawa residents but are now employed in the Indian Service with headquarters at Yakima, Wash., where they are getting along nicely.

Old and new students coming from Alaska report that the fishing season in the Northern waters has been very poor this year. This was a very hard blow for many of our pupils, as they depend upon the fishing season for such money as they require for personal needs and desires.

Mr. Morduant Goodnough, the well-known pianist of Portland, has been teaching a class here twice a month, which is as often as he could well come to Chemawa. We are sure those who are studying with him appreciate the opportunity to profit by the instruction of so finished an artist.

All of our boys and girls went hop-picking this year as usual. But they had a rather poor harvest of it, as the hops were not heavy in the main, the weather was bad and the season short. Still, on the whole they gathered in considerable "pin money" and are hopeful of better luck next time.

We regret to announce the death, by drowning, of Johnnie Darnell, one of our students who returned to his home at Kalama, Wash., to spend his summer vacation. Johnnie was enrolled here for several years and his mother and brothers have our sincere sympathy in his untimely taking off.

All old-timers will be shocked to learn of the death of Joseph M. Teabo, who for many years was one of us here at the school. Death occurred at his Grand Ronde home of Brights Disease on August 20. The remains were brought to Chemawa for interment. Deceased was married quite a number of years ago to Miss Dolly Wiggins, who survives him—there were no children. Mr. Teabo was known far and near for his athletic prowess and his musical ability. In every way he was an affable man, kindly to all, and highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances. He will long be lovingly remembered by his old-time friends. At present Mrs. Teabo is acting as matron for the small boys of Chemawa and she has the kindly sympathy of all in her great sorrow.
