

EMPLOYEES' MEETING

THE second regular meeting of the Employees was held in the Auditorium on Monday evening Nov. 2, from 7.00 to 8.00. Supt. Wadsworth called the meeting to order and stated that while there was no regular program prepared the meeting was open for the discussion of any question that any of the employees wished to propose. Different questions were proposed and informally discussed. It was suggested that more interest would be taken in the meetings and more good could be derived from them if there were regular programs prepared and subjects assigned to members upon which papers were to be prepared. "Care of Public Property" was assigned to Mr. Devol; "What Can be Done to Lessen the Use of Tobacco Among the Boys," to Mr. Gillett; "Conservation of the Pupils' Time," was assigned to Mrs. Brace and Mr. Smith; Mrs. Brace representing the academic department and Mr. Smith the industrial department. "Department" will be discussed by Miss Fitzgerald and Mr. Loos. Miss Fitzgerald will discuss the topic from the standpoint of the schoolroom and Mr. Loos will straighten out the difficulties of the disciplinarian.

At 8.00 P. M. the meeting adjourned to the Gymnasium for the first of a series of Socials that have been planned to be given during the year. Here Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Loos had arranged a dainty lunch consisting of coffee, sandwiches, salad, pumpkin pie and cider, while a neat little program of various stunts had been arranged by Mr. Devol, consisting of first, social intercourse; second, dancing; third, men's hopping relay race; fourth, women's walking relay race; fifth, a pumpkin passing contest in which two persons chose sides; and sixth, hunt for partners for lunch; this consisted in matching a cut proverb, the men having one part, the ladies the other. Some dissatisfaction was manifested by the more critical of the party who claimed that there were no such proverbs in existence. They were quieted, however, when they were told that most of the sayings came from the Bible. The grand march was led by Mr. Cooper. At 10:15 the social adjourned to meet again in the same place Dec. 7, at 8.00 P. M.

EXCELSIOR SOCIETY NOTES

On October 1st, the Excelsior Society met in room No. 9 to reorganize for the school year of 1915. Thirty-seven members were present; these members, with several new boys present, made quite a room full.

Reginald Downie, a member of the class of 1914, was elected president.
