

“In 1830 the problem was how to get the Indian out of the way. To-day the problem is how to make him really a part of the Nation. The man who can do for himself is the man to be released. He is the man who thinks not in terms of the Indians’ yesterday, but in terms of the Indians’ tomorrow. In one thing we are short—the art of inducing ambition. This largely depends upon the genius of the teacher to fire the imagination of the pupil. That is the first step in all civilization.”

Have you seen Santa Claus?

There is local comment on the connection of Santa Claus and Christmas.

A new cement floor has been laid in the power house, which is a great improvement.

Supt. Freer, of Klamath Agency, was a very welcome visitor at Chemawa since the publication of our November issue. He made many friends during his brief sojourn here.

Miss Rice, a friend of Miss White, arrived from Klamath Agency on Thanksgiving to spend her vacation here. Miss Rice is field matron at Klamath and has been very welcome at Chemawa.

A few weeks ago Supt. Chalcraft, of Siletz made a brief call at the school. He reported everything moving along nicely with him. He is always sure of a warm welcome when he visits Chemawa.

On the 10th of December many friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson in recognition of the fact that it was the birthday of the latter. A most enjoyable evening was spent by those present on this occasion.

Many schemes are being worked to raise money for our Christmas—and they are proving successful, too. The outlook for a memorable time on Christmas is certainly very bright. All of our people are doing their part in good spirit.

There is no denying the fact that we enjoyed a spell of regular spring weather here during a part of December. When we consider what the people in other sections of the country are going through in the weather line we should feel ourselves very fortunate, indeed.
