

THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN

H. E. WADSWORTH, Superintendent

VOLUME 17

DECEMBER, 1914

NUMBER 3

NATIONAL INDIAN ASSOCIATION

HELD BAZAAR NOVEMBER 18, 1914

OF the many organizations that have been engaged for years in volunteer work for the improvement of the conditions among the Indians undoubtedly the National Indian Association has been among the most effective. This Association originated in 1879 and fully organized in 1881. Since that time it has opened the following missions:

Mission to Pawnees, I. T. ....	1884
“ “ Poncas, I. T. ....	1884
“ “ Otoes, I. T. ....	1884
“ “ Sioux, S. D. ....	1886
“ “ Concows' ....	1886
“ “ Ukies ....	1886
“ “ Pitt River ....	1886
“ “ Potter Valley ....	1886
“ “ Little Lake ....	1886
“ “ Red Woods ....	1886
(The last six tribes served at two stations at Round Valley, California)
Mission to Bannocks and Shoshones, Idaho. ....	1887
“ “ Omahas, Neb., at two stations. ....	1887
“ “ Sioux, at Corn Creek, S. Dak. ....	1887
Stickney Memorial Home, Washington, built through our Home Building department. ....	1889
Mission at LaJolla, Temecula, Pachanga. ....
Mission cottage and workers, Portraro. ....
Mission at Coahuilla ....
Mission at Auga Calienta. ....
Mission to Mission Indians, Cal. ....
Preaching Stations at Salohba, Rincon ....
(The last eight stations were opened in 1889 and 1893)
Mission to Kiowas, I. T. ....	1889
“ at Greenville, Plumas Co., Cal. ....	1890
“ “ Crow Creek, S. Dak. Hospital work ....	1890
“ to Apache Prisoners, Mt. Vernon, Ala. ....	1891
“ “ Absentee Shawnees and Kickapoos, Okla. ....	1891