

shooting. The game was fast at all times, Jim and Adams showed up well as forwards while Service at center was himself through the game and Chamberlin and McDonald showed fine form at guard. Black and Irish started for McMinnville. Our team was handicapped by not having Hauser and Downie in the game. The later has been out for some time with a cracked knee cap.

Our next game will be on our home floor with the Stilettos of Portland on the 13th of February. Turn out Students and Employes and support the team and cheer them on to victory also.

Mutes 30 Chemawa Jr. 36—The Juniors of Chemawa walloped the Mutes by the score 36 to 30, it was a fast and rough game, Downie Jr. was the star of the game. Lookout first and second team players or you will have to move and give Downie Jr. your place.

Mutes 18, Chemawa 31—The second team journeyed to the mute school last Saturday, the 6th, and brought back the bacon. Colby at center was the star of the game.

PHYSICAL TRAINING

A FEATURE LONG NEEDED AT CHEMAWA

FOR several years past the need for correct physical development has been becoming apparant in the youth of this school, which can only be attained by supervision of his leisure and play time. The academic department of the school is using the best methods in teaching the youth in educational and literary lines, and the course pursued is that of the public schools of the state. From the day he enters school to the day he leaves, he is taught and handled according to his temperament.

The industrial departments are carefully and thoroughly training the boy in the industrial pursuits, and a boy is given the trade for which he is adapted, home advantages considered.

The various religious denominations and organizations are untiring in their activities in looking after the spiritual welfare of those young lives, and the training given has much to do in molding the character of these young people.

Military training is one of the important features of the boy's training at this school. Through this medium he is trained in military tactics, obedience, promptness, and self-possession. Much time is spent in the open air of spring in preparation for the competitive drills
