

man or community.

No man under strain wants to have his senses and capabilities impaired.

The railroads of America discovered what the abuse of liquor cost them long ago.

Drunkenness is coming to be looked upon in the right light.

It is no longer regarded as funny.

Every constructive agency in the world is against it.

Nothing in the history of the world has emphasized man's awakening to the disastrous effects of over indulgence in strong drink like this present war, and this present war has done so merely because it called forth his utmost strength which he found himself unable to exert except when sober.—Houston Chronicle.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

We continue to enjoy our semi-monthly dances and moving picture shows.

Mr. Brace purchased the piano formerly owned by Mr. Cooper for his daughter, Miss Celestia.

Supt Wadsworth, Mrs. Wadsworth, and Miss Agnes, recently passed a day or two in Portland.

Special Indian Agent S. M. Christie has been making Chemawa his headquarters recently while attending business matters in this vicinity.

On Sunday evening, April the 11, the band played a most pleasing concert. The efforts of Bandmaster Loos and his boys are always appreciated by all of us.

The Boy Scouts are showing renewed interest and activity under the general leadership of Mr. Kennedy and we are all looking forward to a good summèr's work from them.

Miss Clara Guyette had to submit to an operation recently for appendicitis. She is getting along as nicely as could be expected considering the gravity of her case. Her mother and sister came down from Wapato, Wash., to attend her bedside during her illness.

Aberdeen, Wash. March 13.—Judge J. M. Phillipps, nominated at the primaries as mayor of Aberdeen, is a Cherokee Indian, and a graduate of the Carlisle school. His wife is of the Menominee tribe and is also a Carlisle graduate. Mayor France whom Phillipps defeated for renomination is a timber owner and lumberman.