

Spelling matches between the various literary societies of the school continue to be a feature and a good one, too.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are fitting up room 2 in the school building and will use it as a reading room as well as a place for their weekly meetings.

Mrs. Evelyn Rhodes arrived a week or two ago from Tillamook and will visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, for an indefinite period.

Miss Sara Brewer has accepted a position in the office of the Salem Statesman. We are pleased to note this as it opens the way for a large future for Miss Sara.

During the past few weeks we have received visits from the Sisters of Mt. Angel. We were glad to have them come here and hope that they may continue their visits.

Our baseball team journeyed to Corvallis on Saturday, April 10, and crossed bats with the strong O-A-C team. Our boys met a strong aggregation and were defeated, the score being 10 to 1.

At the time of closing our forms for this issue members of the Chemawa Tennis Club were preparing a one-act farce—"A Regular Fix"—for public presentation. The indications were that a delightful entertainment would be afforded our people. Full details will be given in our next issue.

Not long ago Mr. John H. Eastman arrived at Chemawa from Phoenix, Arizona, to fill the position of mechanical draftsman and wood worker. We are pleased to have this position filled permanently. Prior to the arrival of Mr. Eastman the place was filled temporarily by Mr. Laird, of Chehalis, Wash., who proved himself a capable man.

On the evening of April 3rd the Reliance Literary Society entertained many friends at a dance and banquet. The party was beyond doubt one of the social events of the season. Many delightful toasts were given during the banquet. Dr. Frachtenberg recently accepted the position of literary critic for the society and he is doing splendid work. We are pleased to see the Reliance boys coming to the front so rapidly.

On the evening of April 9 the Boy Scouts sold ice cream and cake at the social in the gymnasium, and cleared over $11. Mrs. Brewer and Miss White managed the sale for the boys, and to them is due the credit for its success. The money is to be used to pay for badges and registration fees, due the national organization. Some of the small buildings back of the hospital will be moved to the woods for their headquarters. The boys are meeting each week, and carrying on their training in scoutcraft.
