

On the evening of May 1st the Chemawa String Orchestra jourined by train to Aurora, where they played under the auspices of the Ladies' Relief Society. A good program was well rendered and seemed to please everybody.

The fences on each side of the Southern Pacific R. R. track have been removed from the campus and the improvement is most noticeable. Supt. Wadsworth made no mistake when he issued an order for the removal of the old fences.

The Reliance Literary Society gave an entertainment of a most pleasing character in the auditorium on the evening of April 24th. The attendance was large and all were pleased by the showing made by the members of the society.

The girls of the Winona Literary Society held an annual party in the gym on the evening of May 8th. That it was in every way an affair of a nature to reflect credit on every member of the society is a fact attested by all of the numerous guests invited.

From reports to reach us we learn that Reggie Downie, a former Chemawa American printer and a graduate, is now at Wrangell, Alaska, where he is said to be getting along nicely. He is engaged at fishing, which is an important industry of that section.

Although no account was handed us of the Nonpariels' annual party, given April 16th, we are certain from reports to reach us that the girls upheld the high standard set by this society in former years and that the occasion was in every way most pleasing and enjoyable.

Of late picnics have occupied the minds of Chemawa people as well as the folk of other sections. A number of parties have hied themselves to secluded woodland spots and passed pleasant days. Not to be out-done one of our largest parties passed the greater part of a night between Chemawa and Silver Creek Falls not long ago. From what we learned a good part of the time was spent striking matches in the rain and reading sign posts. Considering the personnel of the party we thought it unwise to show too much inquisitiveness, consequently we have only a vague idea of whose fault it was.

On the evening of April 17 the Chemawa Tennis Club put on an entertaining farce, "A Regular Fix," for the enjoyment of all. The play was well given and a credit to those who participated. On another page will be found the program. As a fore-runner of the occasion Mr. Loos gave a parade, headed by the small boys' band, shortly before the hour for starting the show. Some of the banners which were carried in the parade sank indelibly into the minds of young and old, while Eddie Woods was as while he swept along in a cage full of ferocious wild dogs. It was hard to tell who felt the wildest, Eddie or the dogs.
