

On the afternoon of that day a program was rendered in the school auditorium in the presence of the entire student body and some visitors.

In the evening, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock, the members of the association and the invited guests made their way to the school gym where they enjoyed themselves dancing and renewing acquaintances. Promptly at 10:30 o'clock the orchestra played the good old piece, "Good Night Waltz", which marked the close of the gaieties at the gym.

The evening festival reached its height at the school dining hall, where the banquet was held, and where tables were set with the dainties prepared by Mrs Brewer and Miss Skipton and their able assistants. At the hour of twelve the toastmaster called on different ones who responded heartily to the call. Immediately after the toasts the election of officers took place, resulting as follows: Gordon Hobucket, president; Loulin Brewer, first vice-president; Gertrude McCoy, second vice-president and Ruth Brewer, secretary-treasurer. At the hour of one, all returned to their quarters after having spent one of the most enjoyable evenings that has been passed at the gym and at the dining hall in many months.

The second part of the entertainment consisted of a wand drill by Company C and a drill in calisthenics by company D. The music for this part of the entertainment was furnished by the small boys' band.

The boys were dressed alike in blue shirts with white bow ties and uniform trousers. They presented a very pleasing appearance to the many visitors present.

The third part of the entertainment consisted of general gymnastic exercises varied in degree from the awkward "sommerset" of the small boy to the tumbling of the trained athletes.

It was very gratifying to note that every boy present had had some kind of athletic training. Too often schools and colleges build gym-
