

Mr. Loos has had a lot of work done on the road in front of Mitchell Hall. A good move!

Recently quite a force of our boys and men has been engaged at the task of clearing up "Old Chemawa" and giving it the appearance of a park.

Supt. Wadsworth's attended the commencement exercises at Mt. Angel College on June 16th. He spoke enthusiastically of both the exercises and his reception.

A couple of weeks ago Supt. Wadsworth accompanied a party of returning students to their home in Southern Idaho. He made an unusually quick trip of it.

The following officers have been elected by the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year: President, Irving Shepard; vice-president, Geo. Jackson; secretary, Robt. Downie; treasurer, Geo. Lawson.

Mrs. Brewer, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ruth, is at Ft. Simcoe, Wash., where they are guests of Mrs. Brewer's children, Mr. Ernest and Miss Ella Brewer, who hold positions in the service at that place. They are to be away from Chemawa for several weeks.

Miss Katie Brewer left recently for Tongue River, where she has a position under Mr. M. W. Cooper, who is principal at that school. Forrest Cooper, young son of Mr. Cooper, who has been in Salem with his grandmother, accompanied Miss Katie to Tongue River.

Dr. Edward Marsden, a man of noteworthy prominence from Ketchikan, Alaska, addressed us in general assembly on the evening of Friday, June 25. He had been making a number of addresses in this section of the country and everywhere winning recognition for his unusual ability. We were all very glad to have him address us.

Mr. R. D. Hall, made his annual visit to Chemawa on May 28. Conference with Mr. Kennedy and the officers of the association, and an address to the men of the school gave him a full day. We have his promise that next year he will come earlier and spend a week with us.

On Tuesday evening, May 25, the Christian Association held their annual commencement meeting in the Auditorium. Rev. W. O. Shank, D. D., of Portland, gave a splendid address on the topic, "What is wisdom?" It was full of wisdom and wit, and interesting, and helped a large audience.

Supt. Wadsworth desires to acknowledge numerous invitations to attend commencement exercises in various sections of the country of late and states his interest in the many fine programs sent him. We also desire to express, in this connection, our appreciation of many similar courtesies extended to us.
