

We have had a brief nod from Jack Frost as he was passing by.

Not long ago Mrs. Smith spent a few days in Grande Ronde visiting her friend, Mrs. Dolly Teabo. She had a most enjoyable outing.

On the afternoon of November 14th the football team from the Deaf School played circles around our Junior team. The tune played was 20 to 0. We hope that it never happens again.

A couple of weeks ago the family of Supt. Wadsworth arrived home from the San Francisco exposition, where they had an intensely interesting time.

Supt. Wadsworth arrived home recently from a trip to California on business connected with the school. He reports having had a somewhat hard trip.

The small boys' band is again rehearsing under the direction of Bandmaster Loos and from the little we have heard we think that they are making splendid progress.

The latest additions to our printing force are Howard Barrett, Allan Shepard and Edwin Rousselle. Up to date the young men all find the smell of ink very intoxicating and have no regrets for taking up the trade.

Henry Steuber, who was here for some time in the capacity of assistant engineer, has transferred to Seger, Oklahoma, where he will have charge of an engineering plant. Many Chemawa friends wish Mr. Steuber well in his new field.

More than 3,000 men were enrolled as leaders of the Boy Scouts during the past four months. There are now over 143,000 Boy Scouts in the country, over 29,000 of whom have been enrolled since last June. The present membership is more than 50,000 greater than that of a year ago.

Messrs. Pendergrass and Mitchell arrived home Nov. 1st from a deer hunting trip to Southern Oregon. The hunt proved successful, as their party killed, all told, ten deer. A fine spike buck was brought to Chemawa to grace the tables at the employes' "Mess." For several years now we have had a treat of venison as the result of these hunting trips—a favor which all of us appreciate to the fullest.

Hibbing, Minn.—The Chippewa Indian Territory went "dry" today. Following a legal controversy that has extended over several years all the saloons in Hibbing, Chisholm, and other cities and towns located in the territory have been forced to close their doors by order of Cato Sells, United States Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who has decided that the anti-liquor law must be enforced in Minnesota in the whole territory covered by the treaty of 1855.—Cleburne (Texas) Daily Enterprise.
