OREGON RURAL SCHOOLS

OUR SYSTEM ATTRACTING ATTENTION EVERYWHERE

THAT the people living in the rural districts of Oregon care more for their schools, are working harder to give to their boys and girls a practical education, and have made a greater advance than any other state, is clearly proved by the reception which has been given the rural school exhibit at the Panama Pacific International Exposition.

At the request of the National Bureau of Education, the Oregon State Department of Education prepared for the Educational Palace an exhibit showing the strongest features of the rural schools of Oregon; namely, the standard plan, the Boys' and Girls' Club Work and the Playground Movement. As the rules of the Educational Building would not permit children's work to be exhibited, the system was shown by means of charts and photographs. In the official bulletin of the Bureau of Education, they are mentioned as "unusually attractive colored views illustrating rural school work."

More than 2,000 of the leading educators representing all the States, and many foreign countries, have a careful study of the Oregon exhibit with the purpose of adopting some part of it. Three counties of California have adopted our Standard School Plan absolutely, and through the press of their counties, the educational leaders have given Oregon credit for helping them. W. E. Cole, chairman of the Educational Committee of the Farm Bureau for Napa County, California, in a letter of appreciation to State Superintendent J. A. Churchill, says, after telling of a meeting of their county educational officials, "A standard school was adopted after the Oregon plan. We have kept the local press informed of our work. No doubt every county in California having a farm advisor will very shortly follow our lead." At the Annual Teachers' Institute of Monterey County, the county superintendent, George Schultzburg, brought the teachers to the Oregon exhibit, and in speaking to them said: "I want all of you teachers to see what wonderful work Oregon is doing in her rural schools.
