

to the Council, a quarterly statement of the financial state of the Association. This office may be filled only by an employee of the Chemawa Indian Training School. Two weeks prior to each annual meeting, the President shall appoint an Auditing Committee of two responsible members, whose duty it shall be to balance the accounts of the Treasurer and to report on same to the Association.

Section 6. The Manager shall have charge of all athletic affairs of the school, unless otherwise stipulated. It shall be his duty to issue calls for candidates for the several athletic branches, and to arrange the dates and places for the various contests between Chemawa and other institutions. He shall be responsible for the outfitting of the several teams and of their members. He shall arrange the football schedule not later than the end of August, the basketball schedule not later than the end of October, the baseball schedule not later than the end of March; and he shall see to it that these schedules are posted as soon as possible. He may, at his discretion and with the consent of the Council, choose two assistants, who shall then become members of the Council. The Manager and his assistants shall look after the gate receipts and the sale of tickets for all games played on the home grounds and they shall be empowered to receive Chemawa's share for games played in other towns. At the end of each game they shall turn over these moneys to the Treasurer who will receipt same. The Manager and his assistants shall also see to it that perfect order prevails during all athletic contests. Whenever it shall become necessary to pay officials for their services during a contest, this shall be done by the Manager who shall obtain a receipt for moneys thus paid out and transmit it to the Treasurer. The Manager and his assistants shall also look after the boarding and lodging of both the home and visiting teams. Furthermore, it shall be his duty to accompany the several teams on all their trips. If unable to do so, he may designate one of his assistants to assume full charge, who will then act in the capacity of Manager.

Section 7. The Coach shall have charge of a team prior to its appearance on the field, when that duty shall fall to the respective Captain. He shall arrange for a training table, whenever necessary, and he shall have the power to dismiss any member from a team who, in his opinion, is not fit to represent Chemawa. He shall have full control in choosing the various members for the several teams. It shall also be his duty to select the officials for the several contests. He shall be selected by the Athletic Council, and he shall serve during its pleasure. It is to be desired that a small amount of money, variable from year to year, may be diverted from the funds of the Association towards the paying of a nominal salary to the Coach.

Section 8. The five additional members of the Athletic Council shall
