

for the Deaf. They were beaten by the latter by the close score of 38 to 32. On January 19th the juniors were again beaten by the same team by the score of 35 to 33. January 21st is a date which will be put down in red ink in the annals of Chemawa athletics. On that date our team defeated the strong aggregation from Willamette University by the overwhelming score of 42 to 28. It was one of the fastest games ever played in our gymnasium. On January 28th our boys covered themselves with undying glory by holding the famous Dallas team to the close score of 24-23. This game was played at Dallas. The Dallas team has held the championship for the State of Oregon for the last ten years and has not met a single defeat on its own floor during the last twelve years. Our boys played a brilliant game and have a right to be proud of that defeat. On January 29th the O. A. C. freshmen came to Chemawa and were treated in the usual way; they were beaten by the score of 29 to 19.

The success of our basketball teams has instilled a wholesome enthusiasm into our boys and girls. At the present writing the dwellers of the Small Boys' Building have organized a "Midget Team" and have sent out challenges to a number of high schools. There is also talk of having a so-called "Dwarf Team," which proposes to play a few games with some small teams from Salem.

The prospects for baseball are very bright. The manager is working on the schedule and has thus far succeeded in arranging two games each with University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Willamette University, Mt. Angel College, McMinnville College. If conditions are favorable the baseball team may take a trip this summer as far as Seattle, playing games with University of Washington, The Cushman Indian School, and other teams between Tacoma and Chemawa.

The Association has lost its treasurer, Dr. Fulkerson, who was transferred to the Warmspring reservation. His place will be taken by Albert H. Gillett, who will undoubtedly prove an enthusiastic and faithful worker on behalf of athletics at this school.

