

a capable Superintendent will be able to instill into the pupils the kind of knowledge and training for which they are assembled at Government expense. "Everybody for himself" will not accomplish much for the pupil or school.

It is like this: I say that the fence-rows should be utilized by some crop that need a trellis. As I have control of the general farm crops, the fences around those fields will be so utilized. The courses in agriculture having no head, the other fences may or may not be utilized. It means extra work I must admit, but work that can be accomplished with help properly shifted as needs demand.

Mrs. Loos is now fully recovered from the severe attack of pneumonia which she recently suffered and is now on duty again we are pleased to state.

On February 10th Supt. Wadsworth was obliged to make a trip to Lapwai, Idaho, on school business which necessitated an absence of several days from Chemawa.

Tiling and other materials for the reconstruction of the lavatory at Brewer Hall is accumulating and we expect any day to hear that work has commenced. This will be an improvement badly needed.

An evening is set apart every two weeks for a "little folks" dance. From reports to reach us we are inclined to believe that some of the midgets provide considerable mirth in their endeavors to "trip the light fantastic."

Of late Mr. Mitchell and his detail have put in quite a bit of time leveling up some of the uneven places about the campus which resulted from digging of ditches, etc., in the reconstruction of our heating system. In many places there was a surplus of dirt after the ditches were filled and it was quite a task to get rid of it.

Supt. Wadsworth called the regular monthly meeting of employes for February on the 7th of that month and for March likewise on the 7th. At both meetings after the business sessions were closed the employes repaired to the gymnasium where they danced and partook of refreshments. The business sessions were presided over by Supt. Wadsworth and were as profitable as the social sides of the gatherings were enjoyable.
