

McClusky, captain and guard; Marian Minugh and Dorothy Talbot, guards; Alice Keeley, center; Rose O'Brien and Rose Simmons, forwards; and Mary Lester and Marie Shaishnikoff, spares.

The real pride of Chemawa was its big team. In spite of the heavy schedule, the wearers of the Red and White won an overwhelming majority of the games. Fourteen games were scheduled with strong, aggressive teams, and of these ten were won, while four only were lost. Had it not been for the fact that the boys began practicing rather late in the season, Chemawa would have had a clean slate this year, as practically all the coaches of the opposing teams agreed that Chemawa's basketball team was probably the strongest quintet in the Northwest. Among the teams defeated by Chemawa were teams who have won national fame in former years. Thus, Chemawa defeated the famous Dallas Team of Oregon which, for four years held the undisputed national championship in basketball. One of the most gratifying features was the sportsmanlike and clean style of playing that was adhered to by Chemawa this year. Everywhere the team went the manager was told by the captains and managers of the other teams that no other quintet exhibited as clean a game as was played by Chemawa. It to be hoped that Chemawa will continue playing clean games.

The following men made Chemawa's first team: Reginald Downie, Russel Adams, forwards; Henry Burd, center; Frank Chamberlain, captain and guard; James O. Kennerly, guard; Aurelius Talbot, Martin Colby and Frank Peratrovich, spares.

At the end of the basketball season the boys held a meeting at which Henry C. Burd was elected captain for next year. A better choice could not have been made and the school is to be congratulated upon being represented in basketball by Burd. For the lovers of statistics, the following record of games played by Chemawa is appended hereto:
