TO "SANTIE"

(From the Small Girls of Winona)

I is just a wonderin' Santie,
If you's comin' to Winona,
Cause Mis' Strom says that you wont
if we are bad;
But we never can be good,
Not so very, very, good;
So, old Santie, you wont be very mad?

There is me and little Nellie,
There's Occinia and there's Hazel,
And there's lots of other little girls, you see,
That is wantin' you to come
To our dear Winona Home
And see our lovely, great big Christmas tree.

Then, dear Santie, if you will—
We're not wantin' very much,
Some dishes and a doll with curly hair,
A bag of nuts and candy
And, if you have one handy,
A cunnin' little wooly Teddy bear.

Then, I say, if you will leave them
On the tree on Christmas evenin'
We will never, never, any more be bad;
We'll not quarrel when we play
And we'll mind Mis' Storm every day—
Oh! dear old Santie, we'll be awfully glad!

TO "SANTIE"

(From the Small Boys)

WHAT'S the use of always talkin'
About boys bein' good?
I wish folks as aint boys understood
That you can't have no fun
Unless you romp and run
And holler too, a little now and then.

But, old Santie, you're knowin
How it is with us boys,
And you'll not fail to bring us all some toys,
For you are kind and gay
And you understand our way
Because you're just a great big boy yourself.

Of course you're comin', Santie,
To our home on Christmas night,
We'll go to bed early and sleep just
awful tight;
But maybe we will peek
Just a little bit to see
What you're hanging for us boys
On our big Christmas tree.

We just want a top and marbles
And some apples and some candy
And a harp and knife—I guess that's all—
And—Oh! yes, old Santie,
If you think that we deserve it
We'd like to have you bring a good baseball.

Now, Santie, here's a secret;
Us boys will try to keep it:
You must bring Miss Scholder something
awful nice;
For she's awful good to us
And never makes a fuss
Unless we've been as bad as bad can be.

I guess that's all, old Santie,
We know you're sure to come,
And if you have the goods
You'll leave us all some;
There is no use o' promisin'
That we always will be good,
You know as well as we do, Santie,
Boys couldn't if they would.
