

LOCAL LORE

Miss Skipton and sister, Mrs. Armsrong, spent last week-end with friends and relatives in Portland.

Mr. Ernest Brewer, clerk at the Yakima School, is spending a few days with his mother at Chemawa.

Mrs. Brewer and Miss Gertrude visited Portland Saturday to attend the concert given by Josef Hoffman.

The vocational nurses look quite natty in their new uniforms. Two uniforms for each nurse has just been completed.

Mrs. Rosenberger and son Carter left Saturday for Tulalip where she will spend a month's sick leave with her husband, who is employed at that school. Mrs. Rosenberger has been quite ill for the past few weeks.

Martha and Julia Fratis entertained a number of girl friends in their in room McBride Hall on Monday evening to celebrate Martha's birthday. An elaborate supper was served and a good time generally was had.

The anti-cigarette bill, just passed by the legislature of Oregon, makes it unlawful for boys under 21 years to smoke cigarettes, and a fine of $5 is provided for each offence. Dealers are also prohibited from selling to minors.

The girls of Company D present a very attractive appearance in the new uniform dresses of blue serge, which were issued from the sewing department last week. This company seems to be especially favored, as a round of work dresses have also been finished for them.

The 50,000-gallon concrete oil storage tank has been in use several months and is satisfactory in every respect. An expert in cement visited the school recently and remarked that this tank would never leak oil, but would be available for use 50 years hence, or indefinitely.

Seven large and strong mission settees and nine heavy mission chairs were sent out from the carpentry department this week to grace the sitting rooms of the pupils. The work on this lot of furniture was performed altogether by the shop details and reflects credit on that department.

The 37th anniversary of the founding of the Chemawa school, commemorated each year on February 25th, takes place this year on Sunday next. A program has been prepared and will be given in the school auditorium in lieu of regular chapel exercises. Addresses will be given by various "old timers," as well as others.

A particularly enjoyable function was given by the Alumni and ninth grade class in the gymnasium on Wednesday night after the society meeting. Many friends had accepted invitations, who, with the members of the organization, entered heartily into the spirit of pleasure and good will which predominated throughout the evening. Mr. John Brown's orchestra supplied music for the occasion. Refreshments consisting of several kinds of sandwiches, olives, pickles, various makes of cake, and coffee were served cafeteria style.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hall entertained at dinner on last evening the 'varsity basketball team which represented Chemawa so successfully this season which has just closed. Covers were laid for the following guests: Reggie Downie, Russell Adams, Frank Chamberlin, Frank Peratrovich, Robert Service, George Nix, Bob Downie and Martin Colby. The place cards were unique with tiny American flags upright on each end. The table was beautiful in its floral decorations with the sparkling cut glass, bright silver and snowy linen. The favors consisted of a daintily printed menu card. The six-course dinner was prepared and served by Mrs. Hall's girls, Marie Shaishnikoff and Julia Fratis. At the close of the dinner, Chemawa songs and yells were enthusiastically given and the gentlemen did not forget to give a rousing cheer of appreciation for this exhibition of such splendid ability on part of the two young ladies in preparing and serving the dinner as well as to the hostess and host.

A DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

A Valentine luncheon was given by the second year vocational domestic science class on Wednesday in honor of Dr. R. E. L. Newberne, special supervisor. Covers were laid for ten; the place cards were heart-shaped valentines; favors were red heart-shaped baskets filled with nuts. In the center of the table was a round mirror enclosed with greenery representing a miniature lake filled with hearts surrounded by cupids with fish poles fishing for the hearts.

The following menu was well prepared and daintily served:

Bleeding Heart Soup

Heart Croutons

Olives With Hearts of Celery

Beef Loaf, Garnished With Lettuce and Hearts of Beets

Riced Potatoes

Escalloped Corn

Cupid's Delight Salad

Hearts in Pears

Lovers' Cake

Coffee

The hostesses were Rose Simmons and Laura Squiqui. The luncheon was served by Leona John and Sadie Knowles. Miss Taylor and her girls received appreciative thanks from the guests for the pleasant demonstration of the girls' training.
