Nick Hatch has gone to Washington to work in a logging camp.

Mr. Mullikin, our new dairyman, entered on duty Monday morning.

Mr. Kershner, it is understood, takes charge of a large dairy in Polk County soon.

Early onions and pie plant, grown in the gardens, add to the bill of fare for the pupils.

The domestic science girls are very much interested in their flock of chickens and are giving them good attention.

The high cost of fuel oil necessitates the use of coal for another year. It is estimated that 3000 tons will be sufficient.

Miss Bessie Lahr, Glacier Park, Montana, writes Miss Skipton that she has many fond recollections of dear old Chemawa.

The teachers' club thank Mrs. Loos for her very able and business-like management of the club during the past three months.

A "weinie bake" was enjoyed on Sunday morning for breakfast by the quartet, given by Miss Gertrude Brewer in honor of the members.

Mrs. Mabel Danenhower, representative of the State Sunday School Association, and two lady friends from California, spent Sunday at Chemawa.

Rev. Father Gregory of St. Benedict's Abbey spent the week-end at Chemawa, conducting the Catholic services in place of Father Gall, who was called elsewhere.

The Alaskan young men are growing restless at school now that the fishing season is at hand. Several have already gone north and there are a number yet to go.

Alumni week exercises will take place this year at Chemawa on June 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th. We should have at least 250 graduates and ex-students in attendance.

Mr. George Stewart, who has been working in the plumbing department for nearly a year, resigned on Monday to take up work at the Wahpeton school, North Dakota.

The baseball team crosses bats with the Pacific College team at Newberg on Saturday. It is expected that a couple of auto truck loads of students will accompany our team.

Mrs. Evans has assumed the management of the teachers' club upon request, since Mrs. Loos felt that she has not the time to devote to such work at this time of the year.

This has been a strenuous year at Chemawa as every effort has been put forth to conform to the new course of study as well as to keep up the institutional and productive work.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Brewer and Miss Skipton were guests of Warden and Mrs. Murphy at the penitentiary entertainment given by the prisoners on Monday evening.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hall entertained at dinner last Friday evening members of the string quartet, Miss Brewer and Mr. Turney. It was truly a delightful affair, and, as the guests voted among themselves, "just right in every particular."

Constantine Lestenkof and George Lekanoff left on Tuesday for their home on St. George Island. In order to catch the revenue cutter it was necessary that they leave before school closes as they live in the far north. Both will return in September.

Miss Skipton takes much interest in the lawn and flowers in front of the dining hall. During all spare moments she can be seen devoting herself to the care of this beauty spot. She raises all flowers used for decorating the dining room. Rarely do you see the tables without flowers thereon.

It is regretted that Mr. R. H. Kennedy has severed his connection as representative of the Protestant churches at Chemawa, but as he is to take up the lecture field, which he is very competent to do, he feels it wise to go. All Chemawa wishes him God speed. He will be very much missed by all.

A cup to the best drilled company and a medal to the captain thereof will be awarded during alumni week. A prize will be given to the boy and also the girl who have the best carriage. Prizes will be presented to the boy and girl who have the best records in all departments throughout the year as regards deportment and interest manifested. In addition to this there will be a first and second prize for the winners in the declamation contest.

Mr. Murphy, warden of the state penitentiary, together with his wife, deputy warden and others, accompanied the penitentiary baseball team and band to Chemawa last Saturday. This is the first instance on record where prisoners have been allowed to leave the prison grounds for an outing. Of course there were guards in attendance. Mr. Murphy is a humane man and is employing a reformatory system throughout the great state institution.

Bertha Kamhout, a little girl from the Yakima reservation, died of tubercular meningitis on Sunday morning, last, after being bed-ridden for several weeks. Bertha came to the school last summer and has been delicate and indisposed throughout the year. Her parents and grandfather have been in attendance upon her for some time. Services were held in the Catholic church, Rev. Father Gregory officiating. The remains were shipped to her home for interment.

The last concert of the year to be given by the quartet was rendered in the auditorium on Sunday evening. The young men were in good form and held the audience from the youngest to the oldest almost spell-bound by the harmonious and sweet tones. Mr. Kennedy's legend, "The Miser of Mt. Tacoma," was much enjoyed. With his pleasing personality, good voice and delivery, Mr. Kennedy always pleases his audience. Chemawa is justly proud of its quartet and they did honor to themselves and their school on Sunday night.
