

CLOSING WEEK AT CHEMAWA

(Continued from page 2)

THE PLOT

Act I

Scene 1.—Place: Sitting-room in Rip Van Winkle's home. Domestic difficulties of Mrs. Rip. Rip starts to mill.

Scene 2.—The village Inn. Villagers gossiping. Rip arrives at the Inn and stops to rest. Dame Van Winkle also comes to the Inn.

Act II

Scene 1.—Rip and Wolf in the mountains. A dwarf appears. Rip assists the dwarf in carrying a heavy keg.

Scene 2.—Dwarfs playing ninepins.

Scene 3.—Rip discovers dwarfs at play. He serves the dwarfs with wine from the keg he has been carrying—then he drinks himself and falls asleep.

Scene 4.—Tableau—Rip Van Winkle asleep in the Mountains.

Scene 5.—Rip awakens to find his dog gone and his gun rusted. He starts for home.

Act III

Scene 1.—The village. Villagers gather outside of the hotel. Rip appears. He is filled with amazement at the changes in the streets and at the inhabitants of the village. Other villagers arrive and Rip Van Winkle is recognized. His daughter, Judith, offers her father a home for the balance of his days and the scene closes to the satisfaction of all.

FAIR AMERICA

Vocal—Esthetic Ensemble

1. (a) Processional—Flag of the Free - - - - Wagner
(b) Soldiers' Chorus - - - - - Gounod
2. Waking of the Flowers - - - - - Conant
Juvenile Chorus—Agnes Swanson, Soloist
3. Welcome Spring - - - - - Rubinstein
4. Duet—The Message of Spring - - - - Rix
Agnes Swanson, Marie Shaishnikoff
5. (a) Introduction—The Golden Boat Song - - - - Chant
(b) The Glow Worm - - - - - Hammerel
Junior Chorus
6. (a) The Baby - - - - - Granville
(b) The Tip-toe Song - - - - - Chant
Juvenile Chorus
7. The American Hymn - - - - - Kellar
Senior Chorus
- Finale—The Star Spangled Banner - - - - Smith
Choruses and Assembly
Mrs. Esther Rosenberger, Accompanist

CLASS DAY FIELD SPORTS

On Wednesday morning the field sport events took place before an enthusiastic and large crowd. The contestants for the various events put forth their best efforts and from a spectator's standpoint there was not a dull moment throughout the three hours during which the contests took place. Reggie Downie, student body president, was responsible for this very successful feature of the week. The order of events was as follows:

100-Yard Dash	50-Yard Dash	Pole Vault
High Jump	220-Yard Dash	Shot Put
Discus	120-Yard Dash	220-Yard Hurdle
Broad Jump	440-Yard Run	Javelin
880-Yard Run	Mile Run	1-2 Mile Relay
Tug-o'-war

The highest individual point-winners were Robert Service, with 27; Henderson Tatshama, 14; Frank Chamberlin, 12 1-2.

The result by grades: Ninth grade, 51 1-3; Eighth grade, 20 5-6; Seventh grade, 18; Fifth grade, 6 1-2; Third grade, 5 1-3; Fourth grade, 5.

MILITARY EXHIBITION

The program as carried out was as follows:

- Bayonet Exercises - - - - -
(By Capt. Herschel Tupes and Sergt. Sylvester Poole, First United States Infantry)
- Rifle Drill—Manual of Physical Training, United States Army.
- Competitive Military Drill - - - - -
- Dress Parade—Boys' and Girls' Battalions, Eight Companies.

With four companies of boys posted at the correct distance from each other, going through the intricate bayonet and rifle exercises with precision and in unison, was a sight well worth witnessing, and never have our young men done better.

The competitive drill between the boys' companies, A, B, C and D, would have been a credit to any company of soldiers. Capt. Charles Murphy and Capt. Max Gehler, of the National Guard, the former serving in the Spanish War and the latter on the border, acted as judges, and an hour and ten minutes of strenuous work was given them to keep up with the inspection of companies. Each student captain had been drilling his men for weeks and the "pep" and vim displayed was fine. The judges remarked that it was a knotty question as to which company did best, but on points Company B was awarded first place as being best drilled, with Company A as second.

This competitive drill was looked forward to with much anxiety and interest on the part of the student body. The rivalry was especially keen. Capt. Earl Nuckolls, of Company B, Capt. Frank Chamberlin, of Company A, Capt. Robert Downie, of Company C, and Capt. Ivan Anderson, of Company D, put forth every effort in drilling their companies and a high point of efficiency was reached by all. A large silver cup was awarded to Company B and a gold medal to Captain Nuckolls.

A full-dress parade followed the competitive drill, in which, in addition to the boys, four companies of

(Continued on page 4)