Mrs. Gail B. Perkins has received the appointment of matron to McBride Hall. She was with us last year for a few months and we are very glad to have her return. Dorothy, her little daughter, is with her.

Mr. Turney's trio, consisting of himself, Miss Brewer, and George Barrett, furnishes excellent music for the school. Owing to the absence of the string quartet and other members the orchestra has disbanded for the summer.

A card has been received from Laura Squiqui, adjutant of the girls' company and recipient of the medal awarded to Chemawa's best all-around girl. She has reached home safely and wishes to be remembered to her Chemawa friends.

Cards are received daily from various Chemawa young men who are in the army and navy. The military training received at Chemawa has proved of much benefit to them, as several have already been made noncommissioned officers.

Mr. Loos writes Supt. Hall that he and Mrs. Loos are staying at the King Edward Apartments, San Francisco, and, although they are enjoying themselves, they do not like San Francisco as well as Portland and expect to spend the latter part of their vacation in the Oregon city.

As has been the custom for some years, the Haysville District Sunday School Convention met at Chemawa Sunday last. It is estimated that eight hundred persons attended, using the school auditorium for the services. There were many good talks and an enjoyable program rendered by representatives of the various Sunday schools. The visitors brought picnic lunches and took advantage of our beautiful campus to spread their lunches under the shade of the various trees.

Miss Woods visited friends in Dallas a few days last week.

Mr. R. D. Hall, National Y. M. C. A. Secretary for Indians, was a visitor at Chemawa for several days during the closing week.

The year now about ended has been a strenuous time at Chemawa for students and employes. We all feel repaid on account of the satisfactory results obtained.

Mr. Loos has received a letter requesting our Junior Band to fill an engagement at Siletz some time in July. With the memory of the Lebanon good times still fresh in their minds we are sure that the boys will be only too eager to comply with the request.

During the closing week the various visiting officials who participated in acting as judges, orators, etc., including Mr. Todd, Superintendent of the Salem schools, Miss Coppock, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Miss Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Max Gehlar and Mr. R. About half of the employes are now away on their annual leave, returning on July 15th, at which time the other section will take a vacation. It is planned that our entire force be on duty the latter end of August to assist in canning and preserving the great quantities of fruit and vegetables produced at Chemawa.

Mrs. Edward A. Jaquins, daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. Hall, gave all Chemawa and especially her parents a very pleasant surprise by dropping in unannounced the other day. Mr. Jaquins was called from Los Angeles, their home, on business for a few weeks and during that time Mrs. Jaquins took advantage of the opportunity to visit her parents.

Mr. Jerry Meeker, one of the first fifteen students to enter the Forest Grove Indian School in 1880, and his wife, were guests of Mrs. Brewer during Alumni Week. Mr. Meeker is a man of affairs in Tacoma, having large holdings in that vicinity and does a real estate business. He took an active part as a member of the Alumni Association and was an inspiration to the younger members.

Mrs. Jaquins was honored at a daintily appointed dinner given by Miss Esther Taylor at The Spa on Friday evening. The eight guests attended the Oregon Theatre in the afternoon and after dinner motored out to Chemawa, where they spent an hour or so at the Superintendent's home. Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. William E. Taylor, formerly assistant superintendent at Chemawa, but who is now superintendent of the Bismarck school. Miss Taylor belongs to the 1917 graduating class of Willamette University and left on Saturday by auto for Berkeley, California, where she will take a course in the summer school at U. of C.
