Mrs. Perkins spent a few days in Portland last week.

The male quartet favored the school with a number at Sunday evening chapel service.

There is usually fifty to one hundred girls who go to Salem on the Saturday known as "girls' day."

Chemawa has a force of faithful clerks who put in long hours of service in order to keep up with the work.

Mr. Ole C. Freed, with a force of boys, is doing a good job cleaning out the drainage canal in the lake bottom.

Chemawa has been quite loyal in contributing to the fund for the Y. M. C. A. work among the soldiers at the front.

Mr. Smith is preparing to give a gymnastic entertainment soon. These entertainments are always very much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner and little Jane motored to Scio on Sunday to visit old friends from New York. They returned Monday.

Mr. Daly, agriculturist, has prepared the ground and drilled in ten acres of winter wheat; this is to help feed the school poultry.

A splendid talk to the Protestants was given on Sunday afternoon by Dr. J. K. Brown, a returned missionary from Turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Murphy and Mrs. H. L. Lamouroux were visitors on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Murphy is warden of the state penitentiary.

A new steam main will soon be put in leading from the power house to the laundry. It takes twenty-five per cent of all the power furnished to operate the laundry.

Since the Chemawa team has rounded out and is showing a quality of football hard to rival, Coach Warner has his old-time smile. All Chemawa is proud of its coach.

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was held on Sunday evening, at which time Rev. James Elvin gave a strong address on war conditions and the need of assistance by the associations.

Mr. Marion L. Devol, Day School Inspector at the Kiowa Agency Schools, Oklahoma, has been transferred to Chemawa as Principal. He will arrive this week. Mr. Devol is no stranger here and will be met with open arms by both employes and students.

Thirty acres in hay has been added to the school ranch so for this year. Probably ten more acres will be reclaimed in the lake bottom, besides sixteen acres across the slough from the barns. Clearing land and preparing it for cultivation in this wooded country is no small task.

The Wednesday inspectors report the dairy barn as being immaculately kept. The interior has just been given a coat of whitewash, the stools, pail racks and uniform lockers stand out quite prominently on account of being nicely painted. Mr. Mitchell and his chief assistant, Joe Bettles, are "doing things."

In a game of football last Saturday between Chemawa and the 4th Engineers, two players belonging to the army had the misfortune to be seriously injured, one had an arm broken and another his shoulder blade broken. Eight substitutes were used by the engineers, while Chemawa made no change throughout the game and not a man was hurt.

A large number of Silverton High School students of both sexes accompanied their team to Chemawa last Friday afternoon and right loyally cheered for Silverton throughout the game with our second team, in the face of a defeat for Silverton, as was evident from the start. Their songs were clever and rendered with "pep" and enthusiasm. There was much good-natured repartee between Chemawa rooters and Silverton, which added spice to the afternoon.

The best student body rally, or jolly-up, of the year was held last Friday evening in the auditorium. Speeches were made by President Reggie Downie, Irving Shepard and Mr. Hobucket. Yells and songs were given and a rousing meeting held generally. The football team was called upon and in a body marched upon the stage and surprised the audience by singing a song. It made a big hit and they were encored and compelled to respond four times. Much enthusiasm prevailed, as the team was leaving the next day for the Vancouver Barracks to play the 4th Engineers' football team.

REPORTER'S NOTES

By Robert Downie

The carpenter force is kept busy at all times about the campus, repairing here and there.

Word has been received that James Latattie, ex-student, is married and living on a farm near Dixon, Montana.

We are beginning to feel a little chilly these days at Chemawa. Jack Frost is gradually creeping upon us. Prepare for a cold winter.

The girls of the prevocational sewing room have doubled their work of late. They are taking much interest and hope to be able to accomplish even more.

Lyda Bauer was recently placed in charge of the third grade girls and beginners in the sewing room. They are mending and hemming table cloths and doing good work.

A card from Robert N. Service, now of the Aviation Corps, informs us that he is now stationed at Fort Omaha, Nebraska. "Bunnie" was one of Chemawa's star debaters.

Wednesday evening the fire alarm was given for fire at the hospital. The firemen rushed the hose cart to the place of fire, but the fire was extinguished before they reached the scene. Be careful about false alarms.
